reasons to put us at the top of your list

Congratulate

Any reason's a good reason to have a celebration! Whether it's a small gathering or a special occasion, the Mackay Aero Club has the perfect solution for all your event needs.

Conference

Need a venue for your next conference or meeting that's handy to town with audiovisual facilities; just the right atmosphere and away from hustle and bustle?

The Mackay Aero Club offers all this and more for corporate customers, including catering for simple morning and afternoon teas to impressive conference dinners (capacity 150 people theatre style or 60 classroom style).

Take the opportunity to inspect the newly installed conference facilities and see for yourself what's on offer.

Convivial

The Mackay Aero Club is growing in popularity as a friendly place to meet and enjoy a drink.

If you're interested in anything to do with the aero industry, you'll find plenty of people with a common affinity. It's also where the Tiger Moth Museum members meet, along with local Skydivers, Palmyra Drag Club and the British Motor Cycle Club of Mackay.

Even if you don't have a flying passion, you'll find you're made welcome by an ever-growing group relaxing at their 'local'.

Confetti

If you're planning a wedding and are looking for advice and assistance from professionals who will make your special day perfect, then look no further than the Mackay Aero club (capacity 110).

Choose the level of service that suits your budget:

- Full catering with options of table service or buffet
- Venue decoration including table settings and centrepieces, backdrops, bridal table, red carpet, wedding arch, lighting, chair covers and more
- Cake decoration and design
